To be filled out by Parent or Guardian (required):

As parent or guardian of this student, I have read this document with its Terms and Conditions for access to the Internet. I understand that this access is designed for educational purposes. A content/site filter is utilized by Grady County Schools to block access to objectionable material, however no filter is completely foolproof. I realize that it is impossible to restrict all controversial materials from student access whether that access be intentional or unintentional. I will not hold the Grady County Board of Education responsible for controversial materials acquired by students through the Internet.

_____ I give my permission for my child to access the Internet through the services provided by the Grady County School System.
